LETTER FROM THE BOARD

The price for the Company's leasing of staff dormitories, factory buildings, terminal berths, providing services such as the rental of houses, premises, containers, factory buildings and sales of raw glass etc. to related parties and acceptance of gas supply services provided by relevant related parties is determined with reference to the prevailing market prices. The pricing method for the Company to accept logistics services provided by related parties is the same as that for the Company to accept logistics services provided by other logistics service providers. The pricing principle for related party transactions between the Company and the above related parties are based on the principle of fairness and just, and the relevant agreement is made with reference to the market price of the same type of transactions in the current period. The prices of such related party transactions are in line with the prevailing market price levels for the same period or are in the normal price range compared to similar transactions.

The Board believes that the above related party transactions between the Company and related parties are necessary for the ordinary operation of the Company and will strengthen business development and reduce operational costs of the Company. Such related party transactions follow fair, justice and reasonable market based pricing principles and play a positive role in the actual production and operation of the Company. They neither harm the Company and its Shareholders, especially the rights and interests of minority Shareholders, nor do they affect the independence of the Company or create dependence on related party as a result of such transactions.

The above related party transactions do not constitute any connected transactions under Chapter 14A of the Listing Rules.
